

It's My Future! Video Pitch

Hearing the voices of children and young people at CA2019

Families Australia is inviting children and young people to submit a one minute pitch video for the Child Aware Conference 2019 (CA2019). We are wanting their ideas on how to improve the wellbeing of children and young people, now and into the future. Videos accepted for the conference will be uploaded to the conference website and a selection played at the conference, time permitting.

You can find out more about the Child Aware Conference at www.childawareconference.org.au.

When submitting a video for It's My Future! Video Pitch, you need to be aware of the following:

- 🌟 All videos must be respectful – we won't accept any bad language, threats, nudity, racist or hate speech, harassment, violent or graphic content.
- 🌟 If your video includes others, make sure you have their consent before you upload it. If the other person is under 18 years old, we need the permission of their parent or legal guardian as well.
- 🌟 No payment will be made for videos.
- 🌟 All videos submitted to us will be assessed by a young person who is helping us with the conference and an adult member of our Conference Reference Group. If your video is not accepted, we will let you know why.
- 🌟 Videos we accept will remain the property of Families Australia but that doesn't stop you from using it and sharing it yourself.
- 🌟 Your personal details will be kept confidential and won't be published.
- 🌟 Any image or video that is published online on the conference and Families Australia websites can be copied and shared without the knowledge of the person that uploaded it. Once your video is published, we may not be able to retrieve or delete it if you withdraw your permission after publishing.

If you and all people featured in your video are over 18, your consent is automatically given when you submit your film. However, if you or any other people appearing in your video are under the age of 18, we need this consent form filled in for each participant.
